All the above I am telling JOSETTE as I talk of her wedding to come & what will she have for her wedding gown ? & we will make a BROTH to-day for dinner-supper at home this eventide
...
for we keep an energetic week-

JOSETTE WILL MAKE A BROTH- as they do in her home-I inform a shop where we know them well- We went shopping in the Clacton pale morning sun not too hot for August at this hour & bought what she felt would make a nice taste a pleasing sight on the plate. AND

RE S aint George had other fish to fry

& likes to `talk all over the town-` he is learning about how people live in East Anglia & in Spain-and France

he likes some parts of America-not the low life

We are to use the carrots in the garden with the salad plants & the spring onions as there is no garlic easily found-only Covent Garden can we think of talking last night when this BROTH WAS PLANNED- so if JO likes she could bring some back from London- next time...t he spring onions will give a delicate taste if we use the green leaves
- I think she put some yellow dried peas in as well-& perhaps baby turnips-I see Unity
s mother holding something up
'I have only got these'
Andre will buy some meat when he Goes Round the Town again-some to cook
we shall leave it to him
the man about the house
whom we do not tie to our apron strings-

I was telling JO Summer 1937 as we shelled the shiny green pea pods to begin the broth for the even-time -how when Lennie & I had got away from Mr PONG & his gang of The Empire

we were hidden by a well-educated man New York- he had a duck billed platypus in a glass case a very tall glass case with water- & a man came from the Zoo every day to tend the rare duck from Australia-which is to go home on a boat-

The Bridal house on the New York waterfront was all dark when we came back that night- Len & I walked backwards ran so softly along the waterfront to the men in the blue light kiosk & they got us a taxi-

We were woken up the first morning in his nice big Apartment in the Sky by a Mr Paul Whiteman saying...

“Goodmorning Savages- welcome to Tittle Tattle Land- there is a man coming to fry you for breakfast unless you get up & wash the pots & pans- I am sorry we cannot roast you a pig or a Mustang- but my Manservant is here & he will get you a breakfast-fruit-Flakes-eggs

Ah one of you is a blue-eyed charmer- I will send a lady's maid up by the lift-

Well ! We will go to luncheon & dinner with my Band-I have to go & wake them out of the Hay at 12 noon- ” (they work until dawn !) Mr PAUL WHITEMAN musician bandleader educated man of Boston New York-

Where is my magic baton ? It can take away bumps & bruises scratches & bites-& I have to conduct the Band with it-& keep them in tune

We will call on JEAN in the hospital & see if she would come and dance-we will play her favourite March-*Oh it's the 3 Cornered Hat...*Ah I will get out my sombrero-

Now I must leave & my Manservant will now direct & get you breakfast & by Carriage you will come to Carnegie Hall...

By the way- I have opened your bank- you may collect a windfall on the way- if you again have too much then you may deposit with the Manager of Carnegie Hall-he will hand you a tub full every day- to go shopping all over New York

Mr Paul Whiteman knows Minerva-Olivea Len's Gran just died 1934-Her book EVENSONGS is printed in USA & in several editions-` WINDFALL/Tub full/ a reference to our forgetting the amount of money that JEAN said to get out in RIO December 1935...
