

1937 SUMMER... We have come to the beach from the Convalescence Home What a long time ago seems the first day-days when they were strangers & I remember hearing about `Mary Butts-I went to see her before she died-I m so glad I went-she was in a terrible state really-since he left- but still writing

...
Oh don

t you know her work -I thought living in Paris you would have read some ANDRE-

-its very delicate-she lived in Paris-was there when we came-then to Cornwall

...
always had a difficult life

...”

Talk on the beach Holland-on-sea first day they arrive-

A LATE LUNCHEON- I see ANDRE MALRAUX follow Unity's mother into the garden-the wireless is on all the time low or loud-he needs all the news broadcasts- A late lunch with meats & he may dash & get some more from the Coop if they decide there is not quite enough-he is picking the spring onions she & I have sown February-March-April-there

s lettuce & radishes-he can choose-& tomatoes we have bought that morning at dawn in the town-

Sometimes we buy him the unsalted kippers a pale deep yellow shade more expensive but he prefers them-

& we may return before 6-00 pm to buy fishes from amongst the iced boxes if we eat at home- we usually do & they prefer this-

He Andre

Saint George

advises on my diet & I to him-

Fruit in the morning a half orange or apple- then my Force Flakes or porridge-a half an egg for I cannot eat more

...

I share with somebody-Hovis brown bread & light salted butter or unsalted I like-

I like salad things too as he & JO

Wireless in the home is new-I was born two years after the BBC began its Home & Light programme-every household has the wireless on now-listening or just a pleasant background-perhaps at first it kept burglars away ! It is wonderful for music loving households-there is a Radio Times newspaper for every day , s programmes-Annie artist listens to the Welsh programme-she learned it with a girl cousin-

That evening we are to all go out to a late supper at the best place on the Seafront the town with an orchestra of 7-9 or even 10 players- the great windows will be folded back & the balcony & room open to the SEA the Pier & ships sequin lights far out- Before the meal he made a pillow for me from his jacket & put me under the table at his feet-I had had a good

HIGH TEA

& I agreed I could not eat a full meal-Later we dance they together

...

then all three he picking me up in one arm holding

Josette

& away we go- I did not ask-it was

Saint George

Andre

his idea-perhaps he thinks I am his Teddy bears long frock

Jo

dull brick a swirl & red straps cross over her back-she explains to my disappointed look she has to have something easy to pack for the travelling-Unity

s mother is talking with some people on the curving stairs

...

1945 We look at THE PLACE OF EXPENSE & HAPPINESS-

it was "A TREAT" from Unity's mother- our summer holiday 1937 only 8 years ago-

1945 with George Widower COLONEL ANDRE MALRAUX...Clacton-on-Sea- This lovely restaurant over the road from The Royal Hotel was closed from the outbreak of War 1939-& never opened-

I Greetah Ransom hath lost all memories of the 1930s- whom I am- Andre Malraux found May 1945 Clacton

`a shell Peter-a wraith- Winnclemann had begun to put some of herself back- with music- I found traces appearing the next year- but not the young person we had with us summer 1937 able to point out a fair path through life

she was again going to die if the Winnclemanns had not come along- & myself

...

Now these matters I doth know sometimes as landscapes in the dark night- I have lost the way in harsh winter smows in that life I am not allowed to know

HAPPINES

I know he wishes to be alone as he looks into spaces they have passed their young bodies through... upon that very air of lost time... he will come to walk into this building pass through the spaces of 1937 Summer
