The books that were there in the room at the front of the house where we went on wet days

I Greta Ransom remember her saying to him Andre- "My father`s books Andre not a big library but he has always kept these- You should have a look at them- if you`d like to when you have the time

& anything you want I could bring to Paris-he will let you have anything

I see her body bending passing through the air of this room I know in wintertime

as she indicates the books

I can see him ANDRE MALRAUX Saint George standing so tall & graceful in this small room with a North-east window a room in shadows in summer but alive with warm fire & soft lamp light winter days- Here they too get MUFFINS from the Welsh Makers when they come round at 4pm & again at 7 pm with extra orders & the Italian Organ Grinder with his monkey in warm clothes comes too to help them & I see him in church- I have been in here a winter late afternoon with my father FJR & intelligent conversation

ANDRE he does look at the books a rainy afternoon & talks to She Unity

s mother & JO about them-

A cupboard underneath the bookshelves has her father's nursery bricks that She our Hostess used as a child-

These things matter

I bathed you in a bowl in the kitchen-
(a pause from Malraux
)

...

I saved your life !

My name is Andre Malraux-

around you are people who do not want you to remember me !

They have drawn moneys from an Estate to which THEY ARE NOT ENTITLED & many people are dead because of this

...

`

I can remember George-ANDRE if they show me the photographs & all the iconography of those times-but they STEAL-DESTROY-HIDE ! You bathed me also in the kitchen SINK ! I protested

“

I am not a baby - I bath myself upstairs or in the garden in hot or cold water in summer

-but you lifted me to the sink !

When you told me this I was 24 years old & I said

` Huh-I may do that to you-bath YOU in the kitchen sink-`

1957

That Summer 1937 you Greetha spoke to us of many things

...

Malraux 1970

I remember... George Andre...` We have tied the two single beds together for JO & ANDRE & this makes a much bigger bed for two tall people- & soon I am to sleep at the bottom of their feet when I wish & I shall be `the little lion at the bottom of their Crusaders tomb- or the little dog`- I HAD A NIGHTMARE sleeping downstairs/records-Harry Gordon explains/ JO does not mind me at the bottom of their beds & there is plenty of room between them & none of us gets enough sleep because we do so much so that when we come to bed we fall down from sheer exhaustion- Greta Ransom `

1937 SUMMER... Malraux reads his notebooks 1970 ... " You Greetha said to JO & me Andre-coming into our beds that early morning-

`She our hostess had told you to come & see if we would like tea or coffee in bed & that the bathwater was hot

...

there would be breakfast when we liked- but that

Greetha

yourself had to have some meals on time as she was growing`

...

YES

so I was to set about my breakfast at 9 o

clock am

& take my time & there were always things to do about the heimat

...

`

`You Greta said when you came into our bed between us & sat on the pillow with the blanket round your legs ...`THE VISIT WAS TO BE MADE TO MANY PLACES- We should see many things- You &

She

had known

WE were to come.

The meals had been planned & we would go to the beautiful hotel that had a restaurant with music looking out on the Pier-

& the ships lights could be seen at sea like sequins

...

This is the great TREAT we have planned for she Unity's mother has told me that we shall have to save money a bit & be eating mostly at home or taking picnics- except for nice TEAS when we can find them in villages & small towns

...

She says `I want them to have a lovely time
for I am told they are WEARY FROM SPAIN-they drink wine sometimes but we will buy it when we go out- although I will get something in for the first meals- perhaps Spanish

The plan is to give them a lovely restful time -& we have been planning this quietly since March-

but my father young Fred Ransom knows & had intended to be with us sometimes

...

G.R.

1970 Andre Malraux continues...“ You said we would go & see the villages & where the painters had lived ...` & MR CONSTABLE-it was 100 years since he had died ...`

I whom you are not to recall...ANDRE MALRAUX ... REMEMBER ALL THE HAPPINESS T HOSE DAYS

when we first met

Summer 1937 & a young woman

now dead

was with us

When I came to Earls Colne (Colne Engaine) January 1960 & took my turn NIGHT

...

I did not follow that you had no memory from living in my London home with me 1957 to 1959

I said

Stars-above me here 1960-I want to begin again

1960 January - Colne Engaine tiny meadow Gallows Corner- ANDRE MALRAUX- Night Watch & some Dawn Watch-

“ We have found out now why this has been done to us- why they have tried with such brutality to pull us away from one another ...”

I GR have told ANDRE MALRAUX January 1960 `GO ON WITH YOUR IMPORTANT JOB`

then all darkness descended upon me as again every beverage-food item-spiked with NO MEMORY-powders sprinkled oln my pillows my bedding by Mrs
