with Drusilla so we all came with you that Christmastime because of your happy descriptions-

It was very youth orientated-a concern for their having a happy life & a place of employment worthwhile- We were impressed with the Catholic Church there -of course we all speak the languages-`

1935 XMAS - (Yes Lennie- I was learning in South America it is Weddell family who are important alongside Thomas 's Grote Homes-we do not tell so much RANSOM history down here- At Xmas Mass there was a mouse with 3 boys in the row in front of me-& the half-German boy put it down a hole in the seat

I began to cry-but Drusilla told me`
*Greetah-the mouse can get out

& I am 3 years in early March so I must not cry`

So that when you all came with me to the Evening Service we went into the Conservatory

& Jean was talking with the Priests-there was a water garden-I remember the colours of clothes in the Cathedral were black-fawns-beige-& some brilliant red-the half German boy had a emerald-turquoise shirt on

everybody would have a talk & wave at others as they entered for the Xmas Mass-
the lots Priests did not mind-everyone was singing chanting- & all very jolly Christmas morning-

Drusilla short & very

plump in black to her ankles - we walked to the Cathedral from leaving the Embassy house- I only have to look in my head & it runs like a coloured cine film-
