1937 Summer Clacton-on-Sea-

JO sayeth that first afternoon upon the beach Holland-on-Sea she was scared of SPAIN because Andre kept standing up & walking out when there was firing of guns ...he went to have a better look, & he is so tall !

He strode out one occasion & they all shouted at him to fall down- get down- he did not but seemed in a dream.

A man had to rush out & pull him down.

She Jo could not understand why he did these things- went into a dream (Clara dopes him !)

not think of SPAIN so much.

He the tall angel figure with the rather different green shooting stars eyes to everybody else... arrived first at the railway station & yes she had to come on a train later...

it was a matter making her sad that he would not be seen travelling with her .

It was spoken of as a matter of fear...

a woman named Clara with a gun threatening to shoot them both...or one of them...

On the Holland-on-sea beach I began to make a sand banquet but the better sand banquet was made the following day. It is to give an appetite & suggestions for the following days meals .

I was making an orange

sou`fle

but called it a soufel

& he

Andre or George laughed at me....I said it was in Granny Gordon's cookery book .

I could read some things...

I have my too big summer straw school Saint Clares` Convent School hat on as grown-ups were strict about young children not being bareheaded in hot sun...not good for the brain...the hat it slips down over my eyebrows if I move quickly...

I felt a dumpy dwarf in the way of the grown-ups ...

He & Jo are strained in their behaviour to one another-she near tears-& had to be warned by Stella & Freddie-the-Theatre again...`what ever you do you are not to row with him- that's what Clara does & he is still a young man`

Jo

was sent to bathe her feet along the water's edge &

Andre

George

ANDRE`ooW

was told not to be impatient for she was a very young girl-

CLARA WAS CHASING THEM WITH A GUN

this would seem to clear the air of tensions...he would look around the beach as if checking was not there...with a gun...

CLARA

I would have liked an ice cream but in a child waits to be asked...

I like pale coffee ice cream or plain white
