I HAVE NO MEMORY OF MY FIRST YEARS 1933-1940s....I cannot recall Margarethe speaking to me...

“ How

her father found all the Greenland (Eskimo)

ladies on the island were in the wintertime

when the snow would shimmer in the night time...

attired in long frocks trailing over the snow in the dark - they had made themselves copies of clothes in the paintings - the now famous PLAY Season had them at this because of the clothes made in Spain & Italy for the Players !

Her father Fred Ransom

Greta's grandpa twice back

was attending his Ox in its stall- his church bell- his winter duties harbour & workshops-his writings-his designs-& his correspondence...everyone lead happy busy lives...the lovely foods for winter were all stored in the Ice Caves we had for our households...& the men went up once a week to bring down what you wanted...you gave your list...We had curd tarts & wonderful fruit juices some with spices...not alcoholic...just fresh fruit & brilliant colours...»
