There were very many good people anxious to help ! I ANDRE MALRAUX had lived in Clacton & I knew many of these people now anxious to help...

I had been HUMILIATED over the natural marriage...a matter of late summer & spring

...I SEE FROM THIS HOME...as I look around...THAT THE MARRIAGE I MADE LONG AGO WAS GOING TO LAST... In a Catholic setting nothing could go wrong...Teresa was to be sent to an ASYLUM after the Marital Court

(1946

September)

...I was NOT INFORMED OF THIS...neither were the Winnleman couple...after his death Miss Minni did make some mention to his widow about she herself protecting me by not telling of an Estate...

She was advised by the bastard son it was all the property of the Crown

& she herself had been told so by the woman Angela before the WAR began...she appeared at their GRAND on the seafront...

I have told you I have photographs of it-they wish to deny they were ever there !

They have foul crimes & murder !

... The rest of the family were not given this piece of information at any time...after the War ended Miss Gordon did not say THE ESTATE has gone to the CROWN ! ...I spoke with Miss Win Gordon in 1963...we stayed at Southampton in the same hotel & I was able to question her on many points...I CALL HER MISS MINNI..."
