

1937 SUMMER - The very tall young lady Josette Clotis writes some of my Tales down in her Exercise book...

with red, green, blue inks for her sub-headings...

I

Greetha

Ransom give her ideas...we sit at the kitchen tables in the house on the corner Marine Parade with the long rectangle garden where grow things we can eat...we go to visit Unity`s grandpa every day in the Convalescence Home & thank him for letting us have his sweet home on the corner...The big white Convalescence Home with great glass windows is at the end of Clacton Seafront where it becomes Holland-on-Sea cliffs

...

.... & we now have below JO`s Beach...Andre & I can find her there...she enjoys peace... (ANDRE MALRAUX will return here all his life...last visit October 1976...
