

Georges-Andre MALRAUX - Greetha Greta Frobisher Weddell !

New York March 1937-b 1901 Maureen RANSOM March 1937-b 1933

Menu of the high tea - nearly September-summer 1937-

When we awoke 2.30pm - (17th century East Anglian Nonconformist speech from my first Quaker teachers-to be heard Argentine 1930s)

`Nay thus we bright eyed could sleep nohw...JO we left sleeping,- Andre he woke first at 2.30 pm & mee the little lion the little dog at the bottom of their tomb of the CRUSADES times -the two single beds fastened together & I see`th his bright eyes-looking more brown than that hazel green - You see it sometimes flashing green as with our marsh gases we now go to see above Jo's beach every hot evening we can

...Saint George

he puts finger to his mouth to` 'shush' & we to rise & creep down-pulling on those clothes we hath taken off as we step into the Landing...

He sayeth into my hair we will have An afternoon-go see Mary Gordon-leave JO our Queen Cassiopiaea to sleep for the DANCING to-night...

Hee & sheeeeh -sometimes picking me up for the Dancing we three-I upon his shoulder his breast....NIGHT & DAY-perhaps the lovely `Sand in my Shoes...? Say I nought upon VILLA LOBOS whom we probably met last year-in` JEAN `s` countree Sud America -told VARESE-sculptural composer New York 1936-

MAKE WE`Ah` for `Crail`, Granny Gordon`s` SAD WIDOW HOUSE caused by them-Lindsaybuggarhs-JIM & scum

...& he call`th her Mary Gordon...Mary`

She is` Mary Helena I say `after Saint Helena mother of Constantine` -

ANDRE his name-he becom`th- He washes his face in the kitchen sink downstairs & helps me for I cannot reach -Yeeeahhhh a comb of our hair &

THEN AWAY

- across the Clacton Town beside the Men's Co-op shop where she hath bought him a jacket for soon to LINCOLN & the colder lands of East Anglia & the Fens adventure wee-where his Mummy has ancestors buried about-graves to see-a great house-seas edges & winding lanes-

MARY he ask`th her -`but she will not come to-day` .` She has me go to Auntie Winnie`s bedroom & put on my white frock with yoke made by Aunt Win & Esther from a piece of heavy broken-white shantung Esther got in Oxford Street one lunchtime...`

...beautiful but always so expensive-end of the roll-so I bought it-we can make her a frock Winifred...our niece `

Next my pale green silk lined coat-a straw bonnet not my usual beret-my white bag with lots of money in on a strap across my chest-so I `pay my way` - best shoes shiny black patent & white socks- & WE ARE AWAY-

I hope he doth notice I am not in my usual Hebridean shorts that are considered hard wearing & made for me at Aunt Margarethe's Pirn Mill...-

I do find him so like my HERO Great POUL....Doctor-Mr Gronlander-the genius-Gertruid's grandpa -Aunt Mag girl-of-the-snows her great-grandpaPOUL DID THAT GREATEST SWIM ON EARTH-in our Land Greenland- I hath to remember I am Tierra del Fuego & Peru too-I would be scared if George-ANDRE swam out too far & in Arctic seas- I'm not sure he can swim-hhhmnnn-I won't ask-perhaps he puts a leg on the bottom of the sea like me-I MUST KEEP THEM BOTH SAFE....'

An afternoon upon the Town SUMMER 1937- I am told I may chatter- be the Prophet...this is written by him into those notebooks- Jo is sketching out in headlines in coloured inks an idea for a story-but not exact-Andre is terrified of Clara/Maurice finding out where JO & he hath come -treading upon his ancient shores- Clara & Maurice will take all his moneys into Kingdom come...

But he will wish to speak too this afternoon -imparting his wisdom of his travels & his years to me-& anyone we meet as we WATCH THE WORLD GO BY- I feel tears at the thought of the years past when I was not beside him-them- & taking them about dear Thomas's Homes- & apologetic-sad that no Ransom family com`th to greet us this summertime- 1937...

Best behaviour I vow- not to say `It is true` & have him put me on a high place & say "Say it again-if you dare-"

We hath had tiny set-toos- budding tears from me- over Teilhard de Chardin & what I gained-thought I understood from the lecture in Colchester March 1937
... & I hath never forgot the old lamp & its light as we came to the little school for the lecture that winter night-

THE GROWNUPS all fell asleep perhaps-I saw them nod & blink a little-they'd taken a good supper-but I hath to listen best I can & tell my Father who could not attend...

1937 nearly September- An Afternoon of ANDRE Colonel MALRAUX & the PROPHET born of 14 races & 27 Nations the past thousand years-Sea Traders as Andre-George

TEA WAS IN CORDY's restaurant but it may hath had another name then - He had me recall much in 1945 when he spoke upon this year of our meeting Summer 1937-
THE WIDOWER IN GRIEF FOR JOSETTE`the young woman with us is now dead`

He will remember this afternoon all his life-as with all of summer 1937-when he came with a young lady & they found the Gospels acted out -then December 1937 the disgusting obscene British Nobles & Crown set about him-his life until his death- because he ANDRE MALRAUX was made GUARDIAN TO THE GREATEST PIECE OF HUMANISM-philanthropy that brought to the globe's civilized peoples

HOPE- MAN's HOPE-

1937 We had a High tea & Andre he chose the table-Andre - He sayeth- coming September soon 1937-...

`for I wish to look at people-study them- & listen'

We sit at the left hand side as you face the street so he can see the entire teashop & see the Town pass by outside- I chose with he shrimps peeled & some for us to peel-cucumber & lettuce bread & butter very fine & brown for me- All in a glass bowl & on a plate too- A good tea- half China-half Indian I doth advise having travelled Nord-Sud Amerika with JEAN last year & grandpa RANSOM- Lennie- Alfred-Alfie Charles RN to be Rear-Admiral in the coming WAR...records/1946-1948/1953 -

I know hee George ANDRE believ'th me nohhh -& say'th its my dreams & he has his ! But tea is not finished-a white creamy ice cream & fan wafers to come. I prefer coffee ice-cream having travelled Sud Amerika- but Aunt Winnie says `ITS F A S T-

& alright for Esther & friends in Town. ` A dispute we hath had Saint George ANDRE & me over my requesting coffee ice-cream & announcing `I have it in Tierra del Fuego` -

I got nothing & he ate a strawberry ice with a stone-face-looking at me in great solemnness- Strawberry - which I doth not like- not too many sweet things- I would have had a plain lily-white vanilla ice cream-

(I had heard `it was FAST-coffee ice cream`)

I got nothing

I

We have come to an agreement over the old Grandpa Ransom push-chair we take with our things piled on with my great-aunts` Ethel & Alice Gordon`s green baize umbrella-sunshade that they used when they were my age-

-I will sit on top

WHEN WE GET OUT OF THE TOWN

(I must practice a dinosaur stare...)

I do not want my school-friends to see me ! He George-Andre (the Blessed Saint Andre as Annie & Bessie my great-aunts will call him 1945 June onwards after the SEA MISTS SUPPER-when they invited he & JO in Heaven a young lady`

(accounts)

...enjoys now my ancient

East Coast Britain speech 1937-

I can say simply to him now about the Nonconformist speech `we hang the words upon the very air- lay them upon the seas advancing the beach sayeth FJR my father`

& ` Yes-

Andre-

Georges

I can begin speak plain as I doth at the Convent of the Poor Saint Clares on the seafront for it is easier for the school...`

In November 1957 at 50 Lancaster Gate Square after he has come from seeing “ `young Paccelli` your grandmother Mary Gordon`s

friend ”- he will say `And when I come from Gaul you can curtsy to me again`...

East Coast Britain speech- It is the influx from the Continent 16th-18th centuries-they had to learn English-you wished to say something beyond the plain facts with your limited vocabulary- for they also use their first language to speak quickly- In these new lands where they find refuge to say matters beyond the words-with a philosophical meaning-a poetic one-a deep question-you hang the words the thoughts as it were upon the mists-waters-seasons-dawn & dusk...

I hath had these matters explained before the 2 nd

World War-

November 1952 H.W. Poulter Colchester Museums asks ` Miss Greta Ransom the new recruit to humanism-all time` - `how come Child you have the speech of the 17

th century Nonconformists-out on the Essex marshes-I know some old women in their 90s` now Dovercourt way-they speak like you...grey eyes and flaxen hair the families still hath -hath

Oh woe! Decades on ANDRE MALRAUX will weep that in his understanding of an heir it lived in a big place & never dreamed it travelled in 3 seaplanes with slatted seats to Greenland- or wore knee length tough shorts-have the old push-chair her grandpa Ransom had been taken in by Millie-the skater girl...

Use an old green baize umbrella-sunshade from her Grandpa Gordon's two sisters Greenwich- when they all lived in the Trafalgar Tavern their father John Frederick Gordon Mine Host & of the White Bait Suppers-a man of Scotland his wife too the former Miss Kellow- We were grateful for the green baize umbrella & it joins that summer with Andre Malraux's `bluebird on his water jar in Spain` -

- 1957 November - in 20 years time-in his rooms `Saint Edmund's House` 50 Lancaster Gate Square-he tells me of this afternoon from his notebook s- He will say

`YOU -YOU- were acting as my WIFE !

Oh yes you were-you were-I

Banns read this time not 6-

& I may have the 15 children-I think I will enjoy leading them all across the Park to the French School

He

George

ANDRE MALRAUX was joyful-somebody said `

Tante Yvonne

Mrs de Gaulle will be happy about the children

...` Again violence came at us !

1937 summer- if I was trying out the role-`Madame X`

- it is because I doth know that JO will not have him if he doth not cure that quick fire...

& he doth look like POUL GRONLANDER-in the books they have written on him-with black covers very big books- & one in every GROTE HOME- for the children know that POUL is the 1st Orphan-that was where Tiggy-Thomas got his idea-in the SNOW-for their HOMES they who had no homes A to Z the globe-

Poul Gronlander lost his mother when he was 7 years old in an epidemic-2 of his tall brothers went away to USA-his Uncle & he survived & at 10 years he entered the Norwegian Mission of Pastor Hans Egede & his wife Gertruid to train as a Catechist-he learned all there was to know in the world- & he with the sons of Pastor Egede taught themselves Greek-& many languages-read widely-

He married Margaret Yates-shipping-Carlisle & she helped him with his work-at 19 years of age they married at Frederickstown-they have 5 children-Jacop Gronlander Poulsen the eldest son is grandfather to Margarethe Ransom Grote-John- & Poul Ransom-

“she taught him all about nature-matter & the STARS- She says

‘WE WILL GO-IN SHIPS THAT WILL TAKE US...’ We call her the first Astro-physicist of Greenland- ‘little soft white snow paws fox-squirrel-Maria’

Len & I are making a book on the ancestors-he is drawing the graves-we did some work at Montrose Farm 1936 where we stayed with the Old Ransoms-

The families threatened to peg us on the line with our earth smelling clothes & Ida/Ivy Ransom from America said ‘they cannot come in the dining-room for tea...’

Her two sons are sailing in The Basin-but it was appreciated what we had set about-recording all the inscriptions that had to be covered up when religious maniac times arose-

ANDRE MALRAUX did not hear or follow the meaning of my fading faltering speech on Grandpa FRED RANSOM- twice back `` h e helped a man paint a Raft in Paris

Next year 1933 my 5th birthday I receive from Aunt Margarethe a present from her father-now dead- the LOG OF THE MEDUSA-it used to be on the altar of our Jacopsholmen Island Church- We had Masses said for them-their souls- & the Log was on the Our Lady Church Altar & in the library Montfort Lodge for visitors-two weeks March 1937-

We combined a MASS for Bishop Arnulf of Greenland with another Mass- & everyone say`th he will be surprised UP THERE to get a MASS after so long- 12

All these Services are called Royal this & that-

Our RANSOM 2,000 years of lands & philanthropy are Account/diaries: My 5th birthday present from Mr Pong- March 1938 ‘Mr Pong came with a Clock an owl clock- he had made- then he said it was a bomb & would go off at 9.30pm-I waited until he had gone-then carefully took it down the stairs to the garden-or it might blow a hole in the Old Road & the cars could not get by-

IT WENT OFF AT 12 MIDNIGHT
I was asleep & half woke to hear it- but I had put it far away in a safe place-it did not go off at 9.30pm

JIM Mr Pong’s bomb
It blew a hole the size of the ancient Crator of the Island of SANTORIN where Fred & Gertruid Ransom used to sail in with the children in the last century-I heard next day of the awesome breaking of windows in other houses- water mains- gas pipes & things- Daddy & friends got busy mending & the Town knew who had done it-

When the Police went to get JIM & the other one Lindsay 14-*two evil little 1937 SUMMER- I G.R. 5 years next March weave in & out of what has gone before- so the criminally insane can get DOUGH-

At the High tea Clacton town- called Cordys restaurant later Colonel ANDRE MALRAUX is speaking to me at the tea table about this-&-that - & I am solemn for I realise he is treating me like a grown-up- as I sometimes hath to be when Len & I are on Tiggy's Homes & Ransom Estate matters-□ This Man of Letters-a man of Freedom who has been to Russia is speaking to me & I do appreciate the honour-

We have many kin & friends there of matters the JOYOUS VENTURE-

I look at his solemn moonlight face -sometime he is eating sipping his tea- nodding at the shrimps- requesting some 'mayonnaise' or perhaps some more !□ He will look out of the window & not say anything-or at the other people & he does not stare but looks calm-□ I am wearing a frock & curtsey to the lady assistant taking my coat & hat for the clothes-stand-

Colonel ANDRE MALRAUX

is getting a taste for this-even when we rise in the

DAWN-

He demands□ the□ curtsey□ when I am 24 years old -

He has very delicate wrists & uses his hands nicely....He looks up in thoughtful mood saying quietly□□ " it would be wise to remind Mary Gordon your grandmother that she should tell Harry & his friends

NOT

War in Spain-

it is too late ” - he thinks he has her understand this matter & she was never in agreement with young men going to fight-but sometime you had to make a stand-she agreed with him in their conversations-

That a stand has been made against tyranny

I doth follow.

Colonel Andre Malraux then tells me to get on & eat & go to my own thoughts- for he has his- He has his tiny notebook on the table-

HE IS STUDYING PEOPLE...he may call that evening for an hour with Mary Gordon I know-he & she share friends-acquaintances Paris- abroad-

Granny Gordon she has bought him a jacket for Lincoln & the Fens as its colder up there & we are coming to September

& he go`th to try on jackets in the time that is quiet that Granny tells him to-

I recall looking with him

1957 November at 50 Lancaster Gate Square he got this jacket out from the Queen Anne wardrobe he bought at Christies & tells me “ your grandmother Mary Gordon bought it for me- I always keep it ”

I felt as if I were in a grey great misty tunnel of thousands of years back into time- & I was trying to get inside my body-my head- frightened embarrassed for SHEshe is again saying things about the family at the seaside-pulling them down-insulting them-but at the same time saying `WHAT would MY family MY family do without ME-... she is drinking in JIM's private office at WHITES Club-
