opens door & in thrusts tall man dark hair with gun- He demanded money & knocked me to the floor in the sitting-room when I said we had spent it on the shopping- He waves gun at her- she owed him money from a Yacht trip long ago he shouted- he has been drinking with Lindsaybuggarhs at their GRAND on the seafront next Royal Hotel-

Hot in drink-dope from the LINDSAYbuggarhs PEN their GRAND Clacton seafront he rummaged- pulled everything in drawers- shelves to the floor- called the house a rat den & shouted I had no fine clothes- I said I did for Sundays- he could have been drawn by Lennie as a big tall rat with stripes

he yelled I Greetah
should be a Ward of Court

I said `the Joyous Venture will go overseas then- I want you to leave ` -his eyes mad- like an animal just caged from the Wilds- He rushed upstairs shouting his name- she said it was Dickie-bird- She had a bump- she went to her coat & may have said she was getting the Policeman on the corner- but he shouted he'd shoot her if she left- She may have been having a sane day-

He found no money except my money-box & ripped it open & took every coin- Aunt Win bought it for me it is a red Pillar box & when full I put its coins in the bank for buying my Christmas presents to the family- then it is filled up again- people put half-pennies sometimes a piece of silver in if they ` have had a saving week` -

He shouted down the stairs ` & Angela is a blazing penniless cow` (I heard later they thought he said `brazen cow` so I probably asked about this word)- Then he tossed out Daddy's wardrobe too- he did not touch the famous Spanish Cross in my room where Aunt Murgatroyd had put it on the wall -

He jeered at the embroidered waistcoat that Daddy's friend had given him- His friend got it from a mad great-Uncle who went in for those things - but it is beautiful & fine embroidery- Daddy wears it on Sundays or when we go to Ettie's or Grandpa's other relatives- a white house with a lovely name Clouds... & other places-where I met the lady in the rose-silk gown who lives in New York & has a daughter grown up in New Zealand (

(Taplow court)

she may be a Mrs Henney

-& I found her so very beautiful & kind like a Fairy Godmother...she & Aunt Mag buy their cosmetics in New York)

Dickie Bird stole the waistcoat... as well as the money from my money-box- This hoodlum Mountbatten went to the upstairs lavatory & he did it on the floor- a nasty smell came down- he said what he had done in nasty words

....& that she Teresa Gordon owed him this money & he now wanted twice as much as he loaned her for her friends & du Cann when they were on some yacht

I wonder is he bankrupt as we hear from the Police in Scotland and Norfolk that Lindsaybuggarhs are often

I must have run into the back garden-I have a hole hidden in the fence-to our neighbour who expects these things happening 1930s...

I will hear his name is Mountbatten- he did shout it more than once... but I was too shaking at first & knocked down on the floor & he had the gun & she called him dicky bird

He wore a striped shirt & a sailor cap & was old mutton dressed as young lamb

Years later I hear he is called Lavatory Louis for attacking girls at parties- She Treasa was now crying & I felt sorry for her- she began to clean the lavatory bathroom up- then telephoned Uncle Harry her brother- he could not come until after work- but he'd try & look in lunchtime test a car out & come over from Thorpe-

I had bruises but was taken out by a neighbour to the Recreation Ground to play- I knew I must tell someone what had happened before I forgot so I telephoned LEN -Lennie

I was allowed to do this for everybody about us knows we have troubles from the Lindsaybuggarhs in their GRAND-they make trouble for lots of other people too- & they do not pay in shops or for petrol either- steal & are as rude as can be-

After my phone call to `Jerusalem` we all then knew what had happened & someone told Harry the full Saga- but not to tell Winnie or Esther- or Granny & Grandpa- although Granny Gordon comes to know-

I wonder if she warned ANDRE MALRAUX next year 1937

how coarse & vile are these creatures at the top of the pyramid of Great Britain...they need a Grote Homes Education...

this was why ANDRE & JO did not meet the Ransom family & why nothing was said - they had gone to SPAIN-

1938 I saw this Dicky Bird at the Award Giving- He glared at me. I did not curtsey but let him think I did not remember the last year -

My father had said sadly □ `that's no dicky-bird` when he saw the mess in our little ancient 17th century- Victorian house at the front- which we love when it is candlelit & intend make it a Museum of Great Clacton & to the seacoast Clacton when we have another house

it is in my name-

she & Mr Pong began selling off her wedding presents...

I learned this man `no Dicky-bird` Mountbatten is often drunk because he spends until he is penniless gambling-he pays no rent no hotel bills
he gives his name loudly & sails off

(LIR came with us 1979 `MAURITZ A Humanist Prince 300 years celebrations ` The Hague- He spoke to us in the Bookshop in the Avenue of the Medusae...he spoke to little Peter telling him he had learned Dutch when a boy so he could read something written by an ancestor...I DID NOT KNOW HIM...other than a nice looking small man- the kind you see in bookshops...)

`Into the 18th century when we are forefront in our needs of technology & science- arts- medicine- welfare-□□ On to the 19th century when we are Holders of the Utopia democracy Jacopsholmen to erect the University West Greenland -all of us now have refined the music to personal skills all playing at concert standard 6 instruments- THE PLAY season BEGINS 1940s...`

` We gathered playbills- programmes but the great bulk was on The Holm-we suspect it was got by Mr PONG- burned- he works for barnacles who should have swastikas tattooed on them- they have used the Navy to sail in & slay the children of the Homes for dough

I have reconstructed the music of the RANSOM OPERA

- a little Bach-Brahms- a flair of Wagner & some of your Pretorius- I will improve now we have given the renaissance party-

ANDRE SO MUCH APPROVED-he wanted to lay down his head and never leave a haven of sanity The Pillar House...

where he might remember in peace JO & his boys...

& he had made friends with Victoria from a few months old -& looked forward to holding ` the most beautiful thing upon your god's earth Madam...little Peter...Pete`

LIR tapes...

(Malraux speaking 1972 The North Star Steventon a lunch of lots of people & Josette's French friend a woman... The Whitehead twins mother has said I can go- Beryl will call for me & the children...She may come

...

I am sitting next to him in my pink Young Jaeger coat...

so it has to be cold weather

...he has a navy blue heavy overcoat on...not his romantic raincoat...

Victoria is being sociable as usual wearing her white fur Polar bear coat...

Andre holds Pete`s reins & says `The most beautiful thing on your God`s earth Madam...`
He is drawing me something & speaking about `Old Winnlemann` ...
He tells me he is going down to Clacton on a visit...

1968 Victoria had been to her first Private View at 6 weeks- & Annual General meetings etc. Linnean Society- Natural History- her first year- she never howled- but when ANDRE MALRAUX put her down in her cot she rose on tip-toe & got him back- & they spent another hour going round & round he talking singing-

I hear all this after his death...`

I remember this happening when she was 10 months-

At just 4 years of age in April 1972

she rushes down Pillar House East drive calling happily

`Its Andre-Andre...I love Andre...he makes me laugh

They went round the lawn of `Johnny Crow`s Garden` where the immortal childrens stories were drawn & written...

he with bent head talking to Victoria-Augusta 2nd Legion Rome-visited

Camulodunum C.V.

holding her hand- 10 minutes then he away- Beryl saying he might break-down to stay longer-

we will come again...`

LIR & GR

1967 Captain Alan Villiers speaking Oxford in December -

` These men of the 18th century early 19th century were genius status-polymaths Peter- they had to know everything to survive- they made no distinction in the Arts-Science-technology- Needed to know something

- Old Fred

Ransom had the first re-cycling metal unit up there-cast the first bell in Greenland-magnificent feat- he is photographed beside it-towering above him- Finest school in the world up there- orchestra-Plays-everybody in all languages-Shakespeare every season-they were always exploring everything-

Fred Ransom he invested in all transport 1830s...

that's how Margarethe & Tiggy got started with the Homes

- her mother's grandfather THE GRONLANDER...British wife- When you read him the Gronlander-

& it was all there in the big American style house-you knew you'd encountered one of the greatest minds on earth -
